संदेश – अध्यक्ष महोदया

“जीवन को गतिशील बनायें”

‘जीवन गतिशील है’ – यह कथन न जाने कब से चला आ रहा है। अपने भीतर जीवन की सत्यता को समेटे हुये। चूँकि गतिशीलता है, इसलिए जीवन है, जीवन में स्पंदन है, स्पंदन है तो भाव हैं और भाव हैं तो संवेदनाएँ हैं। ये संवेदनाएँ ही हैं जो कि जीवन में हमारे इर्द-गिर्द जो कुछ भी घटित हो रहा है, उससे हमें जोड़ती हैं और हमारे अनुभवों का विस्तार करती हैं तथा जीवन को एक सकारात्मक दिशा देती हैं। जीवन में आज विश्वव्यापी स्तर पर परिवर्तन हो रहे हैं, जिसके कारण सब कुछ बड़ी तेजी से बदल रहा है, जो कि नई पीढ़ी की सोच को भी बदल रहा है। नई चुनौतियों का सामना करते हुए हमें अपने जीवन को गतिशील बनाये रखने का भरसक प्रयास करना चाहिये। संस्थान के प्रतिभाशाली छात्र विश्वविद्यालय स्तर पर न केवल पढ़ाई में अपितु खेलकूद एवं अन्य गतिविधियों में उत्कृष्ट प्रदर्शन कर रहे हैं। इसके लिए सभी प्राध्यापक एवं कर्मचारी गण बधाई के पात्र हैं।

‘नवोत्कर्ष’ के अष्टम् अंक के प्रकाशन पर सभी को हार्दिक शुभकामनाएँ एवं आशीर्वाद देती हूँ। संस्थान के स्वर्णिम भविष्य एवं प्रगति हेतु कामनाएँ।

Director's Message

I express my heartfelt gratitude on releasing eighth issue of Newsletter “Navutkarsh”. I wish for the success of this issue. This time I am writing on impact of COVID-19 on economy.

Impact of COVID-19 on Economy & Role of Government

The impact of COVID-19 on Indian economy is very bad and negative. Estimation of IMF about Indian economy growth rate for this year is near about zero. So everybody is looking at the face of government in this depressed period. Government is unlocking the economy and relaxing its various policies and is providing financial help to needy groups. Thoughts of professor Keynes, in Macro Economics, now has great significance. Gone are the days when the doctrine of laissez faire was accepted as the guiding principle of economic development. Government was supposed to act as a passive spectator. Today, the government has emerged as an active participant in promoting the economic development of an underdeveloped country. The underdeveloped country, as is well known, is generally caught up in the vicious circle of poverty. But this vicious circle has got to be broken at some point or the other if the country is to develop and progress economically. No other agency is better fitted to perform this job adequately and efficiently than the government itself. This task cannot be left to private enterprise in the country for two reasons. Firstly, the task of economic development involves massive financial investments in various sectors of economy. Clearly, this is beyond the power of private enterprise. Private enterprise can not mobilize financial resources on such a massive scale. It does not have at its disposal sources which are open to the government - for example, private enterprise can not make use of taxation or deficit financing to raise the necessary financial resources for development. Secondly, the 'speed' of economic development in a developing economy is determined to certain extent by the availability of social and economic overheads, such as, roads, railways, ports, telecommunications, schools, technical colleges and institutes. Private enterprise is not expected to undertake investment in these social overheads for obvious reasons. The gap has to be filled in by the government.

We hope soon India, due to combative nature of its citizen, will get rid of from this pandemic and will revive its economy.
